PARISH LETTER

Endings and Beginnings

If you ask many young people, this month ‘which school are you at’ or ‘where do you study’ the answer will not be as simple as it was last month. Many of our young people will have just left primary school and will be waiting to start secondary school, some have finished GCSEs and are waiting to begin their further education and others will be waiting to start their higher education at universities and colleges around the country. You may also find yourself chatting with young people who have recently graduated and are moving on to the rest of their lives.

These young people are living in between times. They have finished one thing, with all the joy, sadness and memories leaving brings, and are waiting to begin another, with all the excitement, anticipation and anxiety that herald a new start. As they wait, I’m sure, they will be encouraged to prepare themselves, as best they can, so when they start the new thing, they are as ready as they can be to make the best of new opportunities.

Young people are not the only ones who have to wait, as we mature, we can often find ourselves in between times. We find ourselves between homes and relationships, between jobs, working and retirement, between parenting our own children and becoming grandparents, between full lives and lives of more leisure. As we wait, I hope that we are encouraged to prepare, as best we can, for the next thing so that when it comes, we too can take advantage of the opportunities that arise.

The church has always existed in between times. From the moment Jesus' disciples watched him ascend to heaven we have been waiting for his return. Unlike young people waiting till September for a new start, we have no idea when Jesus will return and a new phase of life with God will begin. During the church’s between times, we are encouraged to prepare for Jesus' return in the best way we can. We are encouraged to read and study God’s word so we can live the way he wishes us to, we are encouraged to accept Jesus’ love and forgiveness so we can share it with others, and we are encouraged to welcome the Holy Spirit's presence in our lives so we can be guided and blessed all the time.

Waiting for the next 'thing' is never easy but we don't wait alone, God's plan is that we might prosper and live life in its fullness while we wait. Whatever you are waiting for I pray that when it comes you will be ready for it and take every opportunity offered you to flourish.

Jessie

FAREWELL

It is with deep regret and great sadness that I write to bid farewell to the congregations of Cray Valley. I was at St. Andrew's Church for fifty-one years – the last eleven as a lay minister - and had expected to see out my final years there. However, life as we all know, has a way of de-railing our plans and so it has done to me. More recently I have made good friends at St. Mary's and will miss everyone at both churches – please remember, I'm still at the end of the phone!

It has been a joy and a privilege to serve as a lay minister and I send my thanks for all the love and support I've been given.

I will continue to uphold you all in prayer: that God's blessing may rest on each and every one of you; I hope that you will pray for me as I step out in faith to an unknown future but knowing that God will be walking beside me.

*With my love,
Jill*

We are all very sad to see Jill leave St Andrew's after 51 happy years. We thank you, Jill, from the bottom of our hearts for your ministry over the years and wish you well in the future.

FOR THE YOUNG AND YOUNG AT HEART

St James the Least of All

The Rev Dr Gary Bowness continues his tongue-in-cheek letters from 'Uncle Eustace'...

On the perils of taking a wedding

The Rectory

St James the Least of All

My dear Nephew Darren

As with many of your ideas, your intentions are admirable; it is just that they don't work.

So, it was with the recent wedding in your church, where you allowed the happy but quite mad young couple to try and imitate the marriage of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. It was kind of them to want to celebrate Will and Kate's recent 10th wedding anniversary, but it did not seem to occur to anybody that your church, converted from a 1960s warehouse, is fractionally less impressive than Westminster Abbey. And I feel that a backdrop of a car park and canal make a poor substitute for the Houses of Parliament and the Thames. Finally, even 43 very enthusiastic young people can hardly pretend they are a congregation of several thousand.

However, I do applaud your decision to invite me to take it, in order to impart a degree of gravitas to the proceedings, though of course I would not presume to upstage the Archbishop of Canterbury. (Although were he to ask my advice on how to run the Anglican Church, I have several helpful suggestions to hand.) But even I struggled to keep things on a proper course when the bride, lacking a horse-drawn carriage, simply walked up the lane with her ancient pony. (Which then tried to bite me at the church door!)

Her arrival was greeted with music. I will pass no comment on this, as the Bible says we are to make a joyful noise, not necessarily music, unto the Lord. I am sure that drums and kazoos and guitars all have their place – somewhere or other.

It was a pity that the groom, unlike Prince William, had not thought to get to the church on time – or indeed, at all. It was fortunate that the bride’s mother found him in that pub nearby, or really, we would have struggled to complete the wedding.

Your loving uncle,

Eustace

NEWS ITEMS FROM PARISH PUMP

Be careful with Covid, urges Bishop of London

The Bishop of London, Sarah Mullally, has encouraged churches and individuals to continue to take precautions to protect the vulnerable from Covid-19.

“Many will welcome the possibilities now before us. However, this is a difficult point in the course of the pandemic. Despite vaccination rates, cases are up, hospital admissions are up and long covid remains an ongoing concern. Therefore, our approach needs to be cautious and careful.

“Taking personal responsibility means taking precautions to protect those more vulnerable than we consider ourselves to be. Local church leaders know their communities and their own circumstances, and we will support them making local decisions to keep themselves and their community safe.”

The Church of England’s investment and climate change

The Church of England’s National Investing Bodies (NIBs) recently updated General Synod on their progress against climate change measures agreed in July 2018.

The Church of England Pensions Board, Church Commissioners for England and CCLA, which collectively make up the NIBs, had agreed with Synod:

- to work with companies in which we are invested to meet our climate hurdles,
- to start to divest in 2020 from companies that are not taking seriously their responsibilities to assist with the transition to a low carbon economy;
- to ensure that by 2023 they have divested from fossil fuel companies that are not prepared to align with the goals of the Paris Agreement;
- and to seek and scale up investments in renewable energy and low carbon technology.

The NIBs in January 2020 committed to their investment portfolios being net zero no later than 2050, in line with the Paris Agreement. As asset owners and a fund manager with holdings across all aspects of the global economy, the NIBs' journeys to net zero are reliant on influencing change in the real economy and policy environment as a whole, rather than solely implementing carbon-saving measures themselves.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in
1 Kings 1: 5-53

King David was now very old, but he had still not said which son would be king. Adonijah decided to make himself king.

Adonijah had a big party at Rogel Spring for all his friends, including Joab and Abiathar, to tell them he was the king. His brother Solomon and Nathan and Zadok were not invited.

Nathan told Solomon's mother

You must tell King David. If Adonijah is king, he will kill you and your son.

You promised our son Solomon would be king, but Adonijah says he is now king.

Nathan told David

He's having a big party to celebrate right now!

I will keep my promise! Solomon will be the next king. Zadok and Nathan, take him to Gihon Spring, anoint him and tell everyone!

So they went to Gihon with Solomon riding King David's own mule.

He was anointed king and a trumpet was blown.

Long live King Solomon!

At Adonijah's party they heard the noise.

What's going on?

David has just announced that your brother Solomon is now king.

Solomon was anointed and everyone is cheering.

Everyone ran away. Adonijah was so scared he ran to the sacred tent for sanctuary.

King Solomon sent for Adonijah.

If you don't cause me any trouble, I will not hurt you.

GARDENING TIPS

Strawberry shown below in a 6inch pot is a runner from main strawberry plant. This was planted and left to root, then cut off from main plant. You should get better crops next year using this method.

Continue to sow seeds for salad leaves. Thinly planted every couple of weeks should keep you amply stocked, providing you pick regularly. Rocket is shown above planted in a raised bed and watered from water butt in dry weather. No slug pellets were used.

Continue being watchful for slugs and snails. I pick 3 or 4 snails off runner beans every morning. Shingle placed round bottom of plants does deter them.

Happy gardening.

Rita McKay

THE THINGS THAT GROWN-UPS USED TO SAY

I sometimes ponder the things that grown-ups used to say. ‘Children should be seen and not heard.’ That was a regular favourite. My grandparents, some of my uncles and aunts and even some of my school teachers extolled good old-fashioned virtues of Victorian manners and propriety. Some say that standards have slipped nowadays. My experiences are mixed. From my observations many but not all modern-day parents expect their children to behave well in public. (But why has the horrible word ‘kids’ crept in everywhere? What’s wrong with the word ‘children’?).

‘Nobody’s looking at you,’ That was a sobering and usually necessary put-down from my parents or my teacher when I was getting above myself and I was showing off. I see that the American author Janet Malcolm died last month age 86. Shortly before her death she published a book of articles that she wrote for the New Yorker magazine. She titled the book ‘Nobody’s Looking at You’. Perhaps the modern-day ‘me generation’ would benefit from reading it!

‘Fine words butter no parsnips’. Did any adults actually say that to me, ever? It’s such a delightful phrase that I have to wish that they did! But I do know for certain that my Uncle Harry, a retired naval engineer (born 1900) gave me some splendid advice about marriage. ‘Ah,’ he said as I presented Nancy my fiancée. ‘From now on, young man, a twopenny bun will cost you fourpence!’
